of the many Testimonials we are Daily Receiving.

In July, 1889, I was called to see Mr. B. Found him confined to bed, suffering from a formidable constitutional disease. The bones of his face and nose were severely attacked. A portion of them had been removed. Sloughing ulcers had invaded many parts of his body. His former physicians considered him incuriable and had abandoned him. I prescribed A. B. C. Alterative. He

A Man Drowned.

A Man Drowned.

A MAN came in from Ballyhack yesterday to get a marriage license and a ring for his fiance. Wishing to know the best place to buy jewelry, he inquired of a passer-by, who directed him to 108 Salem avenue. He went down the wrong side of Salem avenue and when just opposite noticed the elegant window display and knew that was the right place. There were a good many vehicles passing and in attempting to cross the street he was knocked into a mud hole and drowned. When fished out of the mud he just had When fished out of the mud he just had time to gasp: "Take this pocketbook,go into Solomon's and get a nice ring for Marier. I do not want her to be disappointed."

A Cause For Thanksgiving.

"What makes you look so happy this morning. You look like a man who has just been elected alderman."
"Well, I have good reason to look happy. We are going to have the best dinner you ever heard of. My wife went down street yesterday and bought a lot of groceries at Hassell's, the Cash Grocer, 303 Salem avenue."
"Does Hassell have a telephone?" "Does Hassell have a telephone?"
"Yes, indeed, No. 103."
"Well, I will just call him up and order a spread for dinner. The Big Cut Almost Completed.

The big cut on the Roanoke and Southern just this side of Rocky Mount will be completed this week. This cut is almost solid iron ore and resisted the efforts of dynamite for quite a while. The workmen found it almost impossi-The workmen found it almost impossible to spring a hole, and consequently found great difficulty in putting off a satisfactory blast. The charge would shoot something like a rifle shot. It was finally found that the only way to get through the cut was to give up all attempt at springing the holes and charge them with dynamice at one shot.

Poindexter's Case Again Postponed. The case of C. H. Poindexter for shooting at J. E. Cannaday while on duty as a policeman Sunday night, was duty as a policeman Sunday night, was called before Judge Williams again yesterday evening, but was postponed till Saturday on account of the absence of a material witness. The said material witness was in the city, but the policeman who went for him said he was drunk, and in no condition to appear. Cannaday has no idea of dropping the matter, but will insist that it come to a trial.

Pleased With Roanoke

L. A. Fraser, managing editor of the Shendun News, stopped over in the city yesterday en route to Norfolk. He city yesterday en route to Norfolk. He paid The Times a visit, and drove over the city with C. C. Taliaferro, of Dupuy & Taliaferro. He says Roanoke far exceeds any published account of its resources and advantages that he has ever seen, and that destiny has marked it for a great and prosperous city.
